

Grammar Idioms 47

lay down	to put something down and stop using it, especially a weapon. (                    ) your weapon and put your hands on your head!
let down	to make someone unhappy by not being as good as expected Roxy (                    ) her father when she didn't get into a top college.
hold on	to last or continue to exist Water supplied won't (                    ) if we don't get some rain soon.
go along with	to agree with someone or something They decided to just (                    ) what he was saying because it was easier than arguing.
put forward	to suggest something to discuss The team (                    ) a number of suggestions to the CEO.
cut in	to interrupt and join a conversation suddenly Sorry to (                    ) on you, but could you repeat what you just said?
take off	to start flying The plane (                    ) from the airport on time.
take in	to allow something to enter your body Wanda (                    ) a lot of water when she fell off the boat
take out	to move something from a place Jennifer (                    ) the rice (                    ) of the cupboard to cook it.
clear up	to change so that there are no clouds or fog We won't be able to climb the mountain if the weather doesn't (                    ) soon.