

Lesson 41: 例示のフロー 4 そのほかの語句 : illustrate, like illustrate

The teacher used a diagram to illustrate how the heart works.

This chart illustrates the company's growth over the past five years.

Her story clearly illustrates the importance of perseverance.

The science teacher illustrated the concept of gravity using a simple experiment with a ball and a feather.

In her presentation, Jessica illustrated the impact of social media on students' daily lives with recent survey data.

like

Some animals have special ways to protect themselves, like a porcupine using its quills.

Some math problems, like word problems, require you to think carefully about what is being asked.

There are many school events, like sports day and cultural festival, that help students bond with each other.

Group activities, like class projects, teach students how to work as a team.

idiom

Under the weather

Meaning: Feeling slightly ill.

Example: I'm feeling a bit under the weather today; I might stay home and rest.

Our teacher was under the weather, so we had a substitute today.

Lesson 42: 説明のフロー 1: 説明ルール

疑問詞+SV

I don't know where he went after school.

Can you tell me when the next class starts?

Do you remember how we solved that math problem?

We talked about who should lead the group project.

to 不定詞:後ろで説明

We were given a project to finish by next week.

He brought a book to read during break time.

That's a good topic to discuss in class.