Chapter 6
Definition Paragraphs
pp. 142 ~ 147

The Writing Process

Step 1: Prewrite to brainstorm ideas

- Use clustering to brainstorm ideas.
- Keep your audience in mind.
- Underline or highlight the ideas you like best.

Step 2: Organize your ideas

- Make a detailed outline.
- Include clear definitions with supporting information to explain your topic.
- Use your outline to guide you as you write.

Step 3: Write the first draft

- Write your first draft based on your outline.
- For coherence, make sure that supporting details are in logical order.
- Use transition signals and subordinators.
- Include word origins and idioms.
- Use adjective clauses and appositives.
- Include a conclusion which tells why the topic is important, interesting, or unique.

Step 4: Proofread the first draft.

- Refer to the proofreading guidelines for Chapter 6 on pp. 264 ~ 265.
- Fix all errors related to format, content, organization, and grammar.
- Remove all irrelevant information.
- Reorganize information in the correct order.

Step 5: Write the final draft

- After proofreading, re-write your final draft.
- Set a title which clearly identifies your topic.
- Read over and practice your writing for your presentation.

Peer Review and Self-Check (pp. 264 ~ 265)

- Check that we have met all the criteria in this guide.
- What do we need to keep in mind before, while, and after writing?
