1. track 19 At a flea market

Man: Hello, how are you?

Woman: Fine, and you?

Man: Uh, right now I'm looking for, uh, something for my wife. Uh, preferably a hanging kind of earring or something. What do you have?

Woman: What's her birthday?

Man: Uh, her birthday is May 11th.

Woman: Okay. So she's an emerald.

Man: Yes.

Woman: Um, I don't have anything right now in the emerald, which would be a dark green, but.. hair color?

Man: Black.

Woman: Okay, so I tend to go with a lighter stone. I mean if she wears blue, there's ...for jeans. You know, always good for jeans, dress casual. Um, dark hair, I tend to buy a lighter stone, this way it shows up more.

Man: Mm-hmm. Oh, wow, I didn't think about that.

Woman: Uh-huh.

Man: That's very helpful. Um, what else do you have as far as, like, uh, matching, going with the earrings? Is there like a little set?

Woman: Yeah, if she wanted a necklace I could do a set for you, if that's what you'd prefer.

Man: Okay, great. Um, what would you recommend, as far as, uh...?

Woman: Everything!

Man: Everything? Ha ha ha. Okay.

2.

Woman: Um, basically, just plain and simple, um, just the regular beaded necklace and then you can always wear a stud earring. This way it's plain and simple, you can dress it up or dress it down.

Man: Okay. Now, do you design these yourself?

Woman: Yes, most of them.

Man: How long does it take, about, to do one piece?

Woman: A pair of earrings, if just setting the stone, about 15 minutes.

Man: Oh, really?

Woman: Yeah. A necklace, depending upon if I'm paying attention, concentrating, or watching TV, about 20 minutes. It doesn't take too long.

Man: How long have you been doing this?

Woman: Seven years in September.

Man: Seven years? Oh, wow. That's great. I guess you really enjoy your work.

Woman: It's a hobby.

Man: Really? It looks really nice for just being a hobby.

Woman: Thanks.

3.

Man: Oh... um, I do see a pair of earrings I would like to purchase.

Woman: Okay.

Man: Uh, maybe these, right here.

Woman: Okay, do you need a box?

Man: Uh, please.

Woman: Okay. Why did you pick these particular pair? Any reason?

Man: Actually, I like the color a lot.

Woman: Okay, this is blue topaz, and sterling silver.

Man: And how much are these?

Woman: These are $8.

Man: $8. Are you running a sort of special right now?

Woman: Um, basically, yeah, they're, they're on sale. Normally these run you $10 but being it was so hot and I have a few bills to pay. I cut down the price a little bit.

Man: I understand that.

Woman: Okay.

Man: Okay. And I guess there are two for $15 also?

Woman: Correct. So if you buy another pair...

Man: Okay.

Woman: you get a dollar off.
